Announcement: HRO Partners to partner with JazzHR

HRO Partners is pleased to announce a partnership with JazzHR, a company that specializes in streamlining the recruitment process for hiring employees. Whether part-time, temporary, or full-time, you'd like to move through resumes and interviews quickly, and this is just one of several important services JazzHR offers.

We are proud to have been selected to be featured in JazzHR's Marketplace for HR tech and service providers, and we are excited to offer discounted access to JazzHR's recruitment services to our HRO Partners clients, in turn. Their team is 7000+ clients strong, and available to help with processes such as Applicant Tracking, Candidate Experience and Sourcing, Collaborative Hiring, Compliance, Employer Branding, and more! They offer a free trial of their services, as well, so you can see exactly what they can do for you.

For more information about HRO Partners and/or JazzHR, don't hesitate to email Austin Baker at abaker@hro-partners.com.

May Webinar: Top 10 FMLA Mistakes and Strategies to Avoid Them

In our May Webinar, speaker Daris Freeman (Assistant Vice President, Legal Counsel at Unum) discussed why the abuse of the FMLA is one of the primary frustrations of employers. The FMLA regulation amendments in 2009 provided employers certain mechanisms with which they can better curb that abuse. However, there are also some traps employers may fall into if they do not review the regulations and administer leave requests appropriately.
